

FAMILY MATH CHALLENGE

1. Your tennis coach thought we needed a little accuracy practice on the tennis court today. We were each going to get three shots. Coach drew a large number in each of the service boxes and in the backcourt. This is how the other side of the net looked:

How many different sums could the team members get if all three (3) of their shots land on the targets?